

Michael P. Driscoll

Mike Driscoll was born and raised in New York City. Mike joined the Navy in 1972 after graduating from High School. Mike initially intended to serve just four years in the navy, but ended up serving over 33 years on active duty. One of his tours of duty brought him here to Key West. Once Mike retired from the navy he did like many do and returned to Paradise 2005 to settle down.

He holds membership in the following organizations, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled Americans Veterans, Non Commissioned Officers Association, Senior Enlisted Academy Alumni Association, Surface Navy Association. He is a member of the Key West Military Affairs Committee, Key West Art and Historical Society, Key West Maritime Historical Society, The Florida Historical Society and Library of Florida History, Navy League, Fleet Reserve Association and American Legion. He is an associate member of the Fraternal Order of Underwater Swimmers School, Key West Florida and a City of Key West Ambassador.

He is a member of the Patriot Guard Riders who show respect for our nation's fallen heroes, their families and their communities. They shield the mourning family and their friends from interruptions created by any protestor or group of protestors and that is accomplished through legal and non-violent means.

He is also a member of Moore's Marauders, an organization that conducts expeditions around the world looking for and finding remains of that have been declared missing in action. This provides closure for family members and returns those who have given their life for our freedom a final resting place in their own homeland. He has earned a career certificate in Corrections and a Bachelors Degree in History/Government. He is a certified SCUBA diver and a licensed U.S. Merchant Marine Officer.

He resides in Key West, Florida with his wife Suzanne Runnels and their shelter rescued German Sheppard, Turk the Wonder Dog
