

Kevin D. Collins is a six year resident of Key West. He completed his graduate work at New York University in the field of clinical psychology. While living in NYC Kevin was employed as an Associate Director with the NYC Health and Hospitals Corporation and taught as an Adjunct Professor. Eventually he moved to Connecticut where he worked as the Director of Children and Family Services for a private substance abuse hospital. In 1995 he opened a private practice in Ridgefield Connecticut. On moving to Key West, Kevin was employed by Wesley House Family Services for five years as the Director of Continuous Quality Improvement and Contract Management. Currently he is working with the Monroe County Department of Health as the Director of Quality Management and Strategic Planning. He is a graduate of the 2008 Key West Ambassador Class, the 2009 KWPD Citizen's Police Academy and volunteers his time with the Tropic Cinema and the Cooking With Love Program.