

KEY WEST POLICE DEPARTMENT

June/July 2007

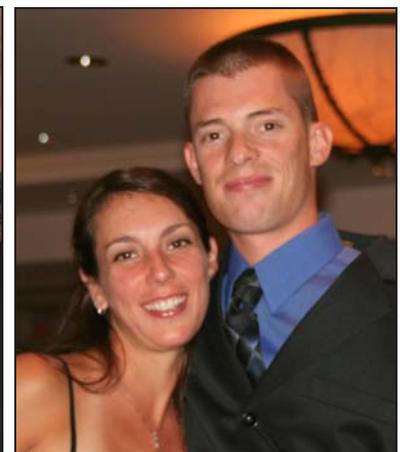

Protecting Paradise

Volume 2, Issue 6

Love Fund honors officers, staff at 2007 Ball

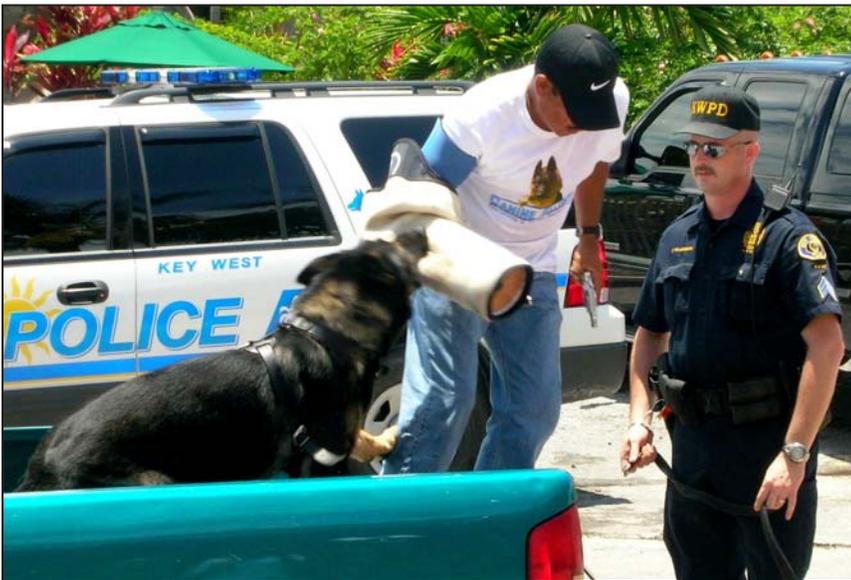

Photos by Darnell Sealey and Christie Phillips
From top left: Andrea Hope, Inspector Janeth Popham Del Cid and her new husband Thomas Popham, and Officer Jennie Carson; new City Manager Jim Scholl and his wife Jolene; below, Ofc. Michael Shouldice and Jennifer Dipalma; Ofc. Danyle Gray and Sgt. Robert Allen; at left, Ofc. Eric Biskup and Julie Brandenburg; center, new parents Detective Matt Haley and Hope Haley.

Photos by Darnell Sealey and Christie Phillips
From above: Chief Bill Mauldin and his wife Terri Mauldin;
Property Technician Angie Rodriguez and her husband Al;
Officer Kuniko Keohane and Johnny Nerya; below, Crime
Analyst Tricia Milliken and Vince Weiner; Detectives Bradley
Lariz, Randy Smith and Matt Haley and Sgt.s Robert Currul and Sean Brandenburg; Officer Monica Diaz and her husband Jose.

Benefit for Officer Tommy Anglin raises over $16K

Hundreds of people came out to support KWPD Ofc. Tommy Anglin in June at a fundraiser for the K-9 officer. The festivities were held at Boondocks at Mile Marker 27, and included entertainment by several local blues bands, 50/50 auctions, a silent auction, t-shirt and wrist band sales and plenty of food and drinks.

At the end of the day, the benefit raised over $16,000 for Tommy, money that will go towards his mounting medical bills. Tommy has been with the KWPD since 2004 and has spent the last seven months battling cancer, his second brush with the disease since 2003.

From top left, Sgt. Pablo Rodriguez and Ofc. Steve Torrence volunteered at the event; Ofc. Tommy Anglin with his K-9 Ferro; Tommy and his girlfriend Ashlie Dean watch the K-9 demonstration at Boondocks; event emcee Bill Hoebee and Lt. Benkoczy; at left, Sgt. Sean Brandenburg demonstrates his K-9 Wind's capabilities with the help of a well-padded assistant.

Photos courtesy of Eric Biskup

