

Bicycle Parking

When cycling downtown, remember to use the bike racks for parking. Locking your bike to a tree, sign, lamp post, or anything other than a bike rack is prohibited. If you do, your bike may be removed. Bike racks have been positioned throughout the commercial corridor and most of the larger commercial establishments should have bicycle parking facilities located somewhere on site. Do not leave your bike unlocked if unattended.